

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

WHOLE NO. 11,072.

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1866.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

PERSONAL.

CARACALLA. Received your letter. Where shall I address you?—
BACHANT.

ERTEGRUDE G.—LOOK FOR A LETTER FROM C.

INFORMATION WANTED—OF JAMES C. GALLATAN. He left Orange county, December 6; has not since been heard from. Any person having information in regard to him will please communicate the same to Clarke B. Gallatin, Walden, Orange county, N. Y.

INFORMATION WANTED—OF JULIA BURKE. Wife of James Burke, who has left her whereabouts, will please communicate the same to her husband, James Morris, Mosherville, Saratoga Co., N. Y.

INFORMATION WANTED—OF PATRICK HIGGINS OF ATHY. County Kildare, Ireland, who came to this country four years ago, by his sister Bridget Higgins at Mount St. Vincent, New York.

MRS. ELLEN KNIGHTSICKER IS IN THE UNITED STATES. Her confidante, if she will send her address to George Gordon Byron, Baltimore.

THE PERSON WHO WROTE TO J. H. W.—CANAL STREET, will communicate in person, all shall be strictly confidential.

THE PERSON WHO HANDLED THE NOTE TO THE "SON-IN-LAW" AT Irving Hall steps last evening will be making another appointment where circumstances will be as much against him as they can make it communication.

JENNIE—I RECEIVED YOUR LETTER, BUT FAILED TO ANSWER IT AS YOU DESIRE, AS I AM NOT SURE IT IS POSSIBLE TO GET A POSITION AS TEACHER OF MUSIC AND PIANO, OR AS GARDENER IN A PRIVATE FAMILY. BEST REFERENCE. Address Miss M. F. St. John, Post office.

BOOKKEEPING, WRITING, AC., FOR BUSINESS.— Mr. DOLBEAR, 609 Broadway, teacher bookkeeping practically as it is used in business, can teach it well. Brooklyn College removed to 509 Fulton, opposite City Hall.

GRADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND, PRIZEMAN AND EX-SCHOLAR OF HIS COLLEGE, WILLING TO TEACH IN CLASSICS, MATHEMATICS, PHILOSOPHY, HISTORY, ETC., IN BRITISH, GERMAN, FRENCH, SPANISH, AND PORTUGUESE. Address Mr. Charles B. Gallatin, Walden, Orange county, N. Y.

INFORMATION WANTED—THOROUGH AND PRACTICAL KNOWLEDGE IN ALL COMMERCIAL AND ENGLISH BRANCHES. At TOWNSEND'S Commercial Academy, 200 Bowery. Private tuition day and evening. Apartments for ladies.

A YOUNG LADY, OF SEVERAL YEARS' EXPERIENCE, will pay about 50 per cent. Apply to OWENS & CO., 428 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

$25,000 TO $50,000—SPECIAL PARTNER. With $15,000, in the manufacturing of a patented article of universal demand. $15,000 now invested. Address J. B. S., New York post office.

WANTED—A PARTNER IN A WELL ESTABLISHED HOTEL AND SHOE JOBBING HOUSE, to take the place of one of the owners wishing to retire. Address N. E. Howell, Herald office.

A BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY. Through and Practical Knowledge in all Commercial and English Branches, at TOWNSEND'S Commercial Academy, 200 Bowery. Private tuition day and evening. Apartments for ladies.

ONE PERSON WHO WROTE TO J. H. W.—CANAL STREET, will communicate in person, all shall be strictly confidential.

THE PERSON WHO HANDLED THE NOTE TO THE "SON-IN-LAW" AT Irving Hall steps last evening will be making another appointment where circumstances will be as much against him as they can make it communication.

JENNIE—I RECEIVED YOUR LETTER, BUT FAILED TO ANSWER IT AS YOU DESIRE, AS I AM NOT SURE IT IS POSSIBLE TO GET A POSITION AS TEACHER OF MUSIC AND PIANO, OR AS GARDENER IN A PRIVATE FAMILY. BEST REFERENCE. Address Miss M. F. St. John, Post office.

FRANCIS H. BLADON, WHO ARRIVED IN NEW YORK by the steamer Queen, December 7, from England, will please call at the office of the underwriter; he will find letters of introduction to various firms. Any information respecting him will be sent to the steamer Queen. GEORGE F. RULLEY, 120 Wall street.

MRS. FRANCIS PASTOR—TOMMY IS HOME FROM MARYLAND. Call down immediately.

MISS FANNY WHITE AND ELLA FRENCH, LATE OF Pithole, please send your address to Hanlon, Herald office.

MARY JANE BOUGHT A JAG OF NORTH WESTERN yesterday, and borrowed $20 on it from a "bank." She has no money to pay it back to give you a new name. "Don't bite 'em if the bears don't bite." BULL DOG.

R. J. JR.—LETTER OF 15TH NOT RECEIVED. Cecilia.

VALUABLE INFORMATION FOR HEIR OF ERIC. Bird Cage for holiday presents, store 420 Broadway. DAVID VENTRONE.

WILL THE LADY WHO SO GRACIOUSLY SALUTED THE acquiescence of his hasty marriage, with a view to matrimony, Address, for three days' Beale, Creole, etc. Mrs. D.

AN AMERICAN LADY WISHES TO MEET A wealthy gentleman, matrimonially inclined. Address E. Francis, station C.

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND—ON 50TH INSTEAD OF POCKETBOOK, containing a small sum of money. Address G. box 402 Post office.

FOUND—ON FRIDAY, DEC. 16, 1866, A POCKETBOOK, containing a small sum of money and other articles, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges, by writing to William Culver, 51 Thompson street.

LOST—ON SATURDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 20, 1866, ON THE SOUTH Ferry, between 10th and 11th streets, to corner of Columbia and Faed streets, a pocketbook containing about $20 in bills; also two notes, one drawn by G. W. L. to A. M. D., also a Photo Laces Handkerchief. Any one returning it to the above to C. P. Clark, 34 Broadway, will be suitably rewarded.

LOST—A GOLDEN BRACELET. THE LADY WHO PICKED IT UP ON Friday morning, at the store 606 Broadway, will be suitably rewarded. Inquire at the Post office between Ninth and Fourteenth streets, and very quickly.

WILLIAMSON'S MARRIAGE. Call at 125 Broadway.

&lt;p